ABOUT QUAKERS

- Quakers seek to live lives built on principles of simplicity, equality, truth and peace. This includes a commitment to sustainability.
- Quakers have been in Kingston for more than 350 years. Kingston Quaker Centre was opened in 2014 and replaced our previous building in Eden Street.
- Leaflets in the Centre provide information about Quakers. More is available on our website and at <http://www.quaker.org.uk/>

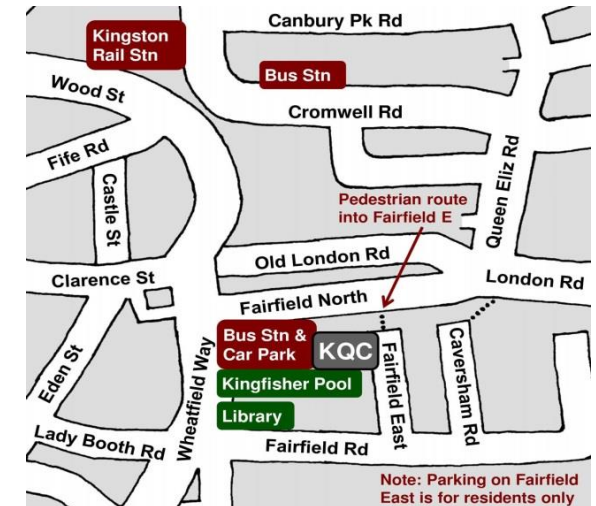

MEETING FOR WORSHIP

You are welcome to join us on Sunday, 10am-11am, and on Wednesday, 6:15pm-7pm, for our Meeting for Worship and for our other advertised activities.

GETTING THERE

Short walk from Kingston rail station, Cromwell Road and Fairfield North bus stations, Eden Street bus stops, Cattle Market car parks and Kingston shopping centre.

Kingston Quaker Centre was joint winner of the 2015 ACE/RIBA Award for Religious Architecture
